Re: Preparation for the English Literature GCSE

Dear Parent / Carer,

At Sir Jonathan North Community College, we work tirelessly to improve learning outcomes for all of our students. With this in mind, and based on the government's decision to make changes to the GCSE curriculum, we have decided to bring some aspects of the GCSE curriculum forward into Year 9 to give your daughter the best chance of being successful at the end of Year 11.

We will begin by teaching JB Priestley's An Inspector Calls. We would like to invite you therefore to purchase a copy of the text so your daughter can make her own annotations in the book and have her own personal copy to help her prepare successfully for her Literature examination in Year 11. We will be selling the texts at a cost only price of £8. Your daughter's English teacher will be selling these texts from Tuesday 9 January.

We ask that you support us in the decisions we have made to support your daughter's learning. However if you wish to discuss this matter further, please do not hesitate to contact me on the details provided below.

Yours sincerely,

Jenna Chudasama
English Curriculum Deputy Team Leader
